

FINDS HER DAUGHTER THROUGH A DREAM

THIS WAS EXPERIENCE OF MRS.
ELLIS OF PENSACOLA.

Dreamed Her Daughter Was in Jonesboro, Tenn., and Found the Dream Was True.

Finding her daughter, of whom she had not heard for eighteen years, through the medium of a dream, is the experience of Mrs. B. L. Ellis, residing at No. 117 East Intendencia street, who left here Thursday night for Jonesboro, Tenn., where she located her daughter, after correspondence taken up immediately after the dream.

According to Mrs. Ellis, her husband, the sole support of herself and infant daughter, died eighteen years ago in Jonesboro, Tenn., leaving her without money to take care of herself and child. At that time a neighbor offered to take care for the little one until Mrs. Ellis was in a position to take the child, and the offer was accepted, Mrs. Ellis coming too Pensacola, where she has since resided. After establishing herself here she decided to take charge of her little one, but she received no replies to her letters. Then she boarded a train for Jonesboro and went to the home where the family resided with whom she had left her daughter. To her great disappointment she found the house vacant, while nearby residents stated that the family had moved to parts unknown.

Instituted Search.

Mrs. Ellis returned to Pensacola greatly disappointed, but she did not abandon the search, but employed agents and detectives who advertised and searched in many cities of the country at a cost to her of nearly $3,000, but no trace of her little daughter could be found.

Finally the search was given up in despair.

One night, after a long day of worry, Mrs. Ellis states that she had a dream. This was that she had read an advertisement in The Pensacola Journal, in which her daughter was advertising for her mother. On awakening, she

What "Marion Harland" Thinks of COTTLENE.

New York, December 15th, 1906.
The N. K. Fairbank Company, Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sirs: Many years ago I discontinued the use of lard in my kitchen and substituted for it—as an experiment—COTTLENE, then compared it very much to a new product.

Since my first trial of it, I can truly say that it has given complete satisfaction, whether it is used alone, as "shortening," or in combination with butter in pastry, biscuits, etc., or in frying, it has never disappointed me.

I honestly believe it to be the very best thing of its kind ever offered to the American housekeeper, and I am glad of the opportunity to make my conviction public.

Yours truly,
"Marion Harland."

Ask Paint Questions

The only way to learn about things is to ask questions. There is a great deal about paint which the average property-owner should know and does not know.

We have some interesting as well as very beautifully illustrated booklets, telling what the man who pays the bills ought to know about paint.

Cut out this advertisement and send it to us or simply ask for Painting Outfit No. 72 and we will send you a little package of painting helps.

realized that it was only a dream, but it so impressed her that she could not dismiss it from her mind.

To relieve her mind, she wrote to a man she had formerly known in Jonesboro. She did not write to her daughter at the address given in the dream, for she knew that she could not stand the shock if she did not receive an answer. The man answered the letter, stating that her daughter was there and had been married for four years to a jeweler in good circumstances.

Daughter Receives News.

The news was immediately conveyed to Mrs. Dunn, the daughter, and the shock caused her to go into a faint. She had been led to believe, it is stated by the people who had adopted her, that her mother had died in Texas. She had been formally and legally adopted by the family and had been given an excellent education. She is an accomplished musician as well as proficient stenographer and bookkeeper.

Mrs. Ellis goes to Jonesboro with the expectation of bringing her daughter and son-in-law back to Pensacola with her.

HON. W. K. ZEWADSKI.

Returns to His Native State After Absence of Three Years.
(Springfield (Ill.) Register.)

Hon. W. K. Zewadski leaves tomorrow with his wife and youngest son, Olaf Zewadski, for Ocala, Fla., where they will make their future home and from whence they came to Springfield in July, 1906. Mr. Zewad-ski has three other sons, W. K., Jr., who completes his study of law at the University of Michigan this term; Clarence, who is also attending the University of Michigan and who was for two years a carrier boy for The State Register, and Guy Zewadski, who is private secretary to Assistant General Freight Agent W. H. Wiley of the Wabash, with headquarters in St. Louis.

Springfield and the State of Illinois lose a valued citizen in the departure of Mr. Zewadski from this city. He is a man of sincerity, earnestness, ability and power. During the three years of residence in Springfield he has taken an active part in the political and church life of the community.
He was a member of the First M. E. church. In politics he was a Democrat. He loved the fundamental principle of democracy—the advancement of the moral and material welfare of the people. He entered into political combats with a vigor and enthusiasm which won him a place in the councils of the party as well as a place in the hearts of his many friends and associates. During his stay here he has practiced law successfully. Last spring he was honored with the Democratic nomination for city attorney. In Florida he was elected to the Legislature three consecutive terms, and was recognized as a statesman of exceptional ability. His friends there are awaiting his return with much joy while Springfield feels keen regret that he is to leave here, but they wish him Godspeed, and, while regretting his departure, are pleased that he was with us so long. He regained his health while here. It was for that purpose he came. He will, of course, be a great "booster" for Springfield, not only as a beautiful place to work and to live, but as a health resort. And while he is saying nice things about Springfield down in Florida, he may rest assured Springfield will be "handling him bouquets" up here which will even outlive the blossoms of the Sunny South.
